As you get ready for the NIRSA National Conference and the flurry of job opportunities that will be available for both graduate assistants and full-time professionals, please do not forget that finding the perfect job takes time.

Quick thoughts:

1. Please use this outline and the exercises or ideas presented as a resource and not "the one perfect way to do things".
2. Use your network of colleagues, friends and those you know in the field as the best source of advice, information and action.
3. SHARE THE WEALTH! If you find a great resource or helpful hint, please send an email and it will be shared with everyone else.
4. Keep asking information, networking, attending conferences and contributing. It is a great habit to get into and one of the best secrets of success!
5. Check the website frequently as change happens frequently.

GOOD LUCK IN YOUR SEARCH PROCESS!
