

August 3, 2010

Dear NIRSA Student Members,

We realize that many of you are busy on- and off-campus during these summer months, but we're writing today because a tremendous leadership and service opportunity is currently available to you. Serving on the NIRSA Assembly would be an excellent way to become more involved in your National Intramural-Recreational Sports Association.

As you may have read about on the NIRSA website and heard about at the Annual Conference, one of the brand-new elements under NIRSA's Future First Governance is the NIRSA Assembly, a think tank focusing on the needs of the profession. The Assembly will be an important mechanism for germinating ideas, developing leaders, and sharing knowledge – and as a current student member, you have the opportunity to be a catalyst for action and results by serving on the inaugural Assembly!

The original deadline for applications to serve on the Assembly was May 1, 2010. However, in order to encourage the best pool of candidates possible, the deadline for applicants for the three NIRSA Student Member seats has been extended to Monday, August 16, 2010 (5:00pm Pacific). Please consider applying for a Student Member seat, or encouraging other students to apply – your perspectives and ideas are important. Assembly applications can be downloaded from the NIRSA website.

Thank you for your attention and for your participation in this important step for our Association. If you have any questions about the Assembly, please feel free to contact us. (For questions on completing or submitting the application, you can contact Sarah Kirk at the NIRSA National Center.)
